

The Prodigal Son

Luke 15:11-32

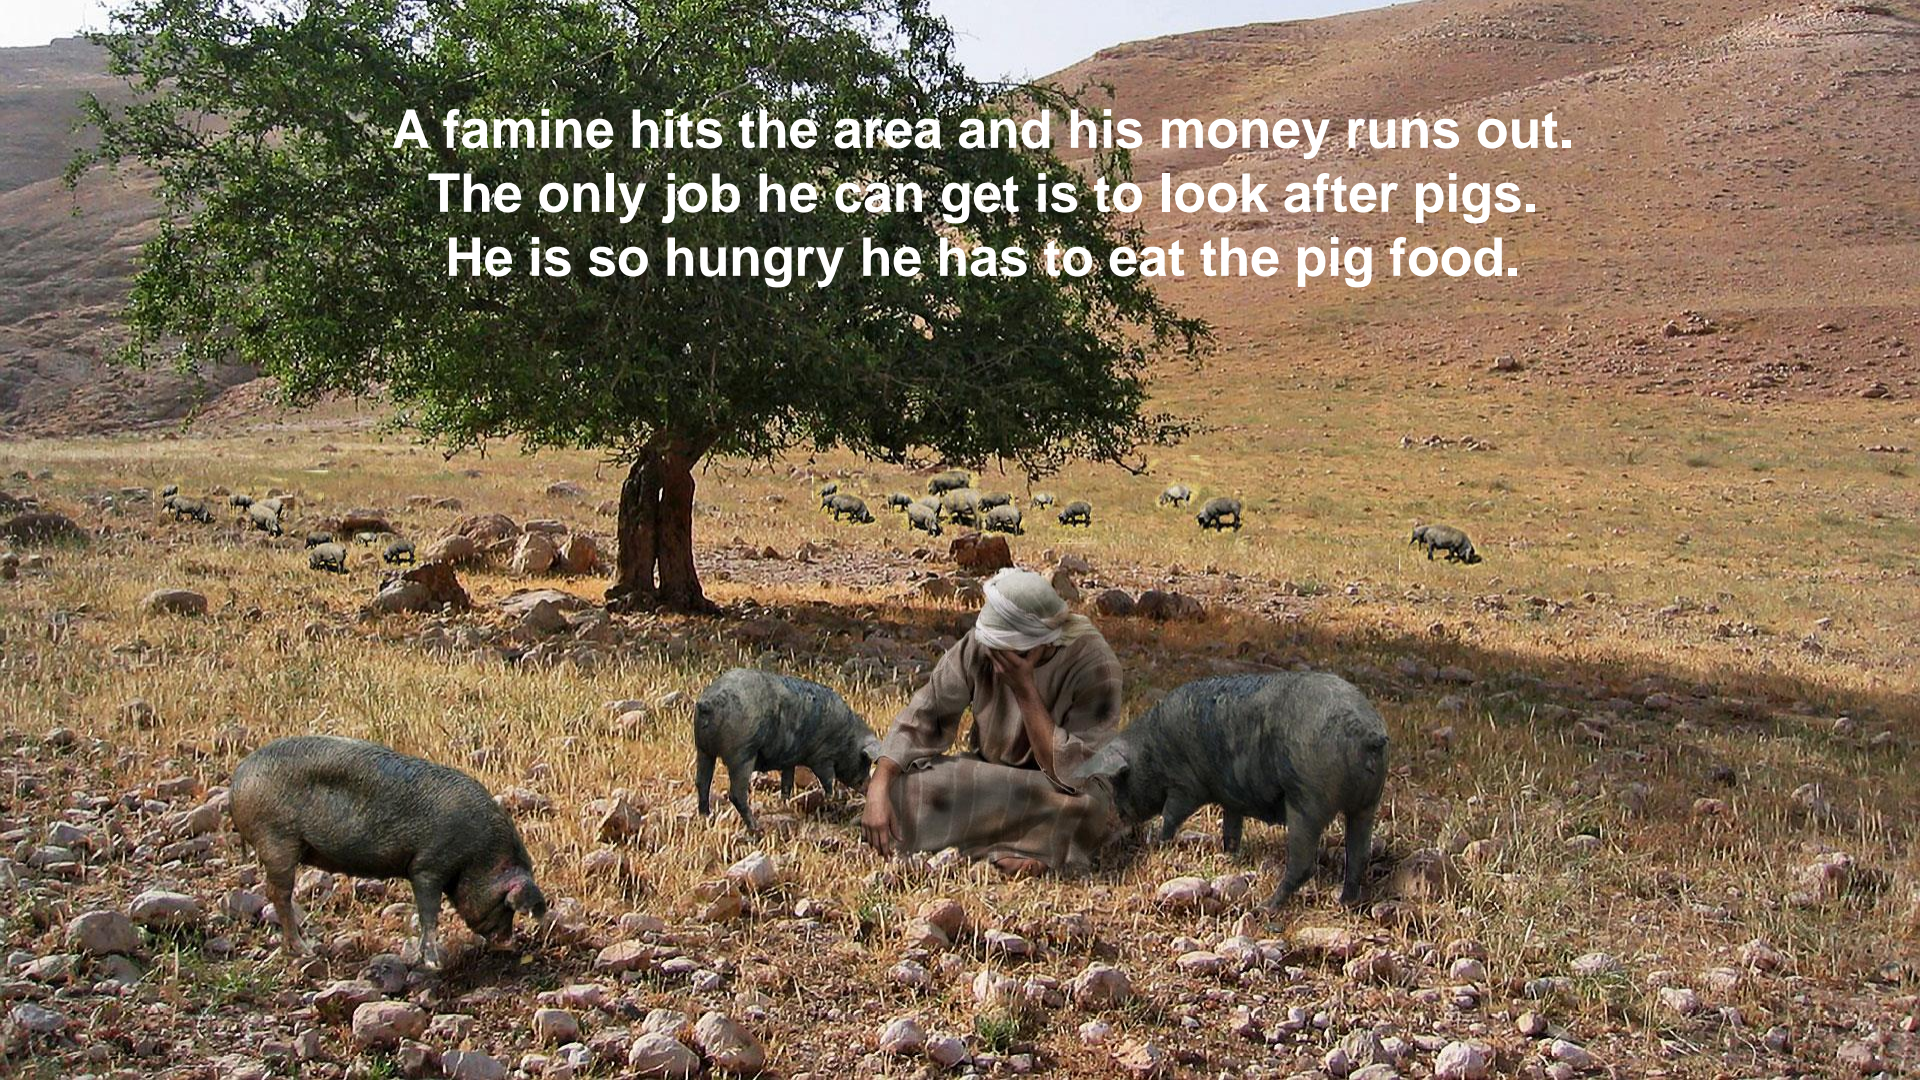

A father has two sons. The younger son asks for his inheritance so he can leave home

Friendship

A group of five people in ancient attire are gathered in a courtyard. In the center is a man wearing a light blue robe and a white turban, smiling and gesturing with his hands. To his left, a woman in a white headscarf and robe looks at him. Behind her, a man in a brown robe and white headscarf has his hand on the blue-robed man's shoulder. To the right of the blue-robed man, another man in a white robe and headscarf is smiling. Further right, a woman in a white headscarf and robe is also smiling. The background features classical architecture with columns and a pediment under a clear blue sky.

He soon attracts friends to help him spend his money

A famine hits the area and his money runs out.
The only job he can get is to look after pigs.
He is so hungry he has to eat the pig food.

Courage

He remembers that his father's servants eat better. He knows he has done wrong and he decides to go home and ask his father to forgive him and let him become a servant.

A man in a white turban and brown robe is embracing another man in a brown robe. They are in a hilly, olive tree landscape. The man in the white turban has his eyes closed and a gentle expression. The man in the brown robe has his arms around the other's shoulders. The background shows a dry, hilly landscape with scattered olive trees and a clear blue sky.

Love

His father sees him coming and is full of love for his son

Forgiveness

The son confesses he has done wrong and is no longer worthy to be called his son.

Unity

The father tells his servants to bring his son new clothes and prepare a celebration party to welcome his son home

Respect

The elder son is angry to discover his father is throwing his brother a party. He complains it is not fair as he has never had a party. The father explains everything he has belongs to the older son too but he must rejoice that his lost brother has been found.
